

CONFIDENTIAL

REPORT

CD NO.

50X1-HUM

DATE OF INFORMATION 1950

DATE DIST. 15 Nov 1950

NO. OF PAGES 2

SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

LANGUAGE Serbo-Croatian

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

GIVES BIOGRAPHY OF NEW CROATIAN MINISTERS

Djuro Kladarin, recently appointed chairman of the Croatian Planning Commission, is a Serb by nationality but was born in Borojevidi in Kostanjica Srez, Croatia, in 1916. He completed the course for primary school teachers, joined the SKOJ (Federation of Yugoslav Communist Youth) in 1939, and the Communist Party in 1939. During the last war, he was first a Commissar of the Partisan detachment in Banja in 1941 and later a Commissar of the 7th Banja Shock Division.

After the war, Kladarin was an instructor in the Main Political Administration of the Yugoslav Army, then a Commissar of the Army, later Chief of the Office for Agitation and Propaganda of the Main Political Administration of the Yugoslav Army, and finally a member of the Plenipotentiary of the Central Committee of the CPY (Communist Party of Yugoslavia) for the Yugoslav Army. He holds the rank of General Major in the Yugoslav Army.

Milutin Baltic, recently appointed Minister in the Croatian government, is a Serb by nationality but was born in 1920 in Donje Seliste, in Glina Srez, Croatia. He completed 2 years in the Glina Gymnasium and 4 years in a Zagreb trade school, from which he was graduated in 1937 as a machine fitter. He joined the SKOJ in 1938 and became a member of the Communist Party in 1940. He became a member of the City Committee of SKOJ for the city of Zagreb in the same year.

In 1941, as a member of the Glina Srez Committee of the CPC (Communist Party of Croatia), Baltić organized the first Partisan units in Glina Srez. Later, as a member of the Karlovac Oblast Committee of the CPC and of the Banja Oblast Committee of the CPC, and as Secretary of the Oblast Committee of the SKOJ, he was active in the Regional Committee of SKOJ for Croatia in 1942. He went to Zagreb the same year and organized the youth and Partisan detachments in that oblast. He became Secretary to the Regional Committee of SKOJ for Croatia in 1944.

- 1 -

CONFIDENTIAL

STATE	X NAVY	X NSRB	DISTRIBUTION
ARMY	X AIR	X FBI

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

50X1-HUM

In 1945, he became a member of the Central Committee of SKOJ and of the Central Committee of the People's Youth. In 1947, he was organizational secretary of the Central Committee of the People's Youth.

Bozo Brkman, recently appointed Minister of Forestry in Croatia, is of Serbian nationality, but was born in 1918 in Crni Potok in Vrginmost Srez, Croatia. He completed primary school and became an apprentice in Commerce in Sisak. He joined the SKOJ in 1940 and became a member of the Communist Party in 1941.

During the last war, Brkman was in the 3d Brigade of the 8th Kordun Division, first as Deputy Commissar of a battalion and later as Deputy Commissar of a brigade. He became Deputy Commissar of the "Seljin" Brigade and Secretary of the Division Committee of the 34th Division at the beginning of 1944.

After the war, he held the post of Secretary of the Karlovac Oblast Committee of the CPC. He was an instructor in the Office for Organization and Instruction of the Central Committee of the CPY during the past 3 years.

COUNCIL MEMBERS NAMED -- Belgrade, Borba, 1 Oct 50

Skoplje, 30 September -- Recently the Macedonian government appointed the following new members to the Council for Legislature and the Building of the People's Authority: Borko Temelkovski, Chairman of the Economic Council; Cvetko Uzunovski, Minister of Internal Affairs; Nikola Mincev, Chairman of the Council for the Turnover of Goods; Naum Naumovski, Chairman of the Council for Agriculture and Forestry; Kemal Sejfula, Chairman of the Council for Communal Affairs and Local Industry; Krste Crvenkovski, Minister of Education and Culture; Vera Aceva, Chairman of the State Control Commission; Mito Dimitrijevi, Minister of Import and Export; Dare Dzambas, Minister of Finance; Blagoje Levkov, Minister of Justice; and Metodi Mitev, Minister and General Secretary of the Macedonian government.

- E N D -

- 2 -

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL